Lt. Col. George F. Stewart, 65, of Greenwood, died at 3:30 a.m. Saturday, Aug. 26, 1995, at home after being in ill health for six years.

Stewart

Mr. Stewart retired from the U.S. Air Force and was a member of the Brownstown Christian Church, Retired Officers Association, Republican Task Force and Sigma Tau Gamma Fraternity.

He was also an eagle scout with the Order of the Arrow; awarded the Kentucky Colonel by the Commonwealth of Kentucky and a member of the AFOSISA Retired OSI Officers Association.

He received his bachelor of science in 1953 from Ball State University and a master of arts in 1974 from Central Michigan University. He was a B-Boy letterman at Ball State University.

Stewart was a high school teacher and head basketball coach at Cortland High School from 1954-1955. He was also an educational specialist with the U.S. Air Force in Greenville, Miss., and a special agent AFOSI in Mississippi; Manila, Philippines; Washington, D.C.; and Pennsylvania.

He was a commander of the AFOSI field office in Columbus and was staff officer of AFOSI District 70 in Wiesbaden, Germany. He was also deputy inspector of the AFOSI Plans and Inspections Division Headquarters in Washington, D.C.

The assistant executive of AFOSI headquarters in Washington, D.C., was also the former chief of operations, District 44, Air Force Office of Special Investigations in Honolulu, Hawaii. He worked for the Indiana Revenue Resource Center in Indianapolis for three years and was manager of the Wackenhut Corp. in Indianapolis for 10 years.

Born July 17, 1930, in Brownstown, he was a son of Forrest R. and Leona B. Snider Stewart. His mother survives in Brownstown. On June 1, 1993, in Greenwood, he married Linda S. Haney Scoville, and she survives.

Other survivors include four children, Scott A. Stewart, Sacramento, Calif.; Victoria A. Stewart-Murphy, San Francisco, Calif.; Jennifer L. Stewart, Columbus; and Christopher G. Stewart, West Lafayette; three stepchildren, Nicholas Scoville, Christian Scoville and Zachary Scoville, all of Greenwood; a sister, Janet M. Pash, Lexington, Ky.; and three grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his grandparents, George and Maye Snider.

Bill McCormick will conduct services at 2 p.m. Tuesday at Winklepleck-Weesner Funeral Home, Brownstown, with burial and full military graveside rites to follow in Fairview Cemetery, Brownstown.

Friends may call from 4 p.m. to 8 p.m. today and from 1 p.m. to 2 p.m. Tuesday at the funeral home. Memorial contributions may be given to the American Lung Association or Hoosier Christian Village in Brownstown.
