STILWELL.

Ben Stilwell died at the family residence, in the West End, on last Saturday, after a lingering illness, of that dreaded disease, consumption, aged 17 years, 1 month and 18 days.

Benny was a manly little fellow and was liked by all who knew him. He was closely attached to his home, thus is his loss the more keenly felt by the mourning ones.

The funeral occurred at the residence, Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock, after which the remains were laid to rest in the family burying ground just south of town.

The BANNER joins their many friends in extending words of sympathy and condolence to the bereaved ones.
