Noah Stodghill Dies At Indianapolis Home

Noah H. Stodghill, 44, died Saturday morning at 7:35 o'clock at his residence, 6200 Brookville road in Indianapolis, after an illness of nine months.

Mr. Stodghill was widely-known in this area where he has many friends who will mourn his death. He was the son of William and Charley Jones Stodghill, both of whom are living, and was born August 18, 1911 at Marrell, Ark. He was married October 19, 1934 at Lawrenceville, Ill., to LaVon Eglon, who survives. He was a steel construction worker, a member of Medora Christian church, the Free and Accepted Masons, Eastern Star and Cedar of Lebanon lodges.

He is survived by a son, Noah Allen Stodghill, and a step-son, Jack Nicholson, both of Indianapolis. He is also survived by six brothers and a sister. They are Cecil, Marion and Howard Stodghill, all of Indianapolis; Charles Stodghill, Vincennes; Hugh Stodghill, Gary, Robert Stodghill, Vincennes, and Mrs. Ruth Brown, South Bend.

Funeral services will be conducted Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Hague Funeral Home in Medora with the Rev. James Brown, pastor of the Medora Christian Church, officiating. Burial in Fairview cemetery, Brownstown.

Friends may call any time at the funeral home.
