John W. Strange Dies After Long Illness; Rites Held Sunday

Funeral rites were held Sunday afternoon from the Zabel Funeral Home for John W. Strange, of Brownstown, who died at the Jackson Park Convalescent Center in Seymour Thursday after an illness of over two years.

During the two years he had been a patient in the Veterans' Administration Hospital in Louisville numerous times.

Evan Bolejack, pastor of Brownstown Christian Church, of which Mr. Strange was a member, was in charge of the funeral rites. Burial was in Fairview Cemetery.

Born in Illinois, January 19, 1898, Mr. Strange was a son of the late Stephen A. and Mary Lamb Strange. He was married, in Bedford, March 25, 1930, to Mary E. Pavey. Mrs. Strange died on September 5, 1970.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Herschel (Mary) Baker, of Columbus, a grandchild, and three brothers, Elmer Strange, of Mitchell, Elsworth Strange, of Hazledell, Illinois, and Clifford A. Strange, of Lewisville, Indiana.

Two brothers and two sisters are deceased.

Mr. Strange was a long time civil service employee both at Camp Atterbury and Bakalar Air Base. He was a World War I veteran and a member of Medora Lodge No. 328, Free & Accepted Masons.
