Rites Thursday for Clarence A. Sturdivant

Clarence A. Sturdivant, 54, of Ewing, died Tuesday morning at Silvercrest Sanatorium, New Albany. He had been ill for the past month.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon from the Brownstown Christian Church with the Rev. E. E. Pedicord, of Brownsown, in charge. Burial in Fairview Cemetery. Military honors will be in charge of Brownstown Post, American Legion, at the graveside.

Friends may call at the Spurgeon Funeral Home, Brownstown after 7 o'clock tonight.

Mr. Sturdivant was born December 9, 1895, at Noblesville, Ind., the son of the late Morton and Maggie Sturdivant, who preceded him in death. He was a veteran of World War I and was unmarried. A wide circle of friends mourns his death.

He is survived by a step-sister and step-father, who live in Indianapolis.
