Ernest Sweet

Ernest A. Sweet, 62, of Indianapolis, husband of the former Florence Kestner, died Friday night, Aug. 29, at Community Hospital. He had suffered a stroke at his home on Wednesday night and never regained consciousness.

He graduated from Arsenal Technical High School and later was employed by the Indiana National Bank for 44 years. He retired a year ago after undergoing surgery.

In January, 1940, he and Miss Kestner were married in the Brownstown United Methodist Church by the late Dr. Clyde Black.

In addition to the widow he is survived by a son, Dr. James A. Sweet, a teacher at Butler University, and a daughter, Mrs. Barry (Donna) Eden; two brothers, William E. and G. Paul Sweet, all of Indianapolis.

Mr. Sweet is also survived by three granddaughters, two grandsons, several nieces and nephews, and his mother-in-law, Mrs. Elmer (Ina) Kestner, of Brownstown.

Funeral services were conducted at 1 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 2, from the G. H. Funeral Home, South Madison Ave., with the Rev. Charles Jennings officiating. Graveside services were conducted at Fairview Cemetery in Brownstown at 3:30 p.m.
