Florence K. Sweet, 87, formerly of Brownstown, died Friday, April 7, 2006.

She was born Jan. 30, 1919, at Brownstown, a daughter of the late Elmer and Ina Hamilton Kestner. She married Ernie Sweet, and he also preceded her in death.

After graduation from Brownstown High School, she moved to Indianapolis to attend business college. She went to work for Indiana National Bank after graduation from her one year program. There she met her future husband who was also employed by the bank. Later in life, she was employed several years by L.S. Ayres and then completed her working career as secretary to the auxiliary at Community Hospital East.

Since moving to the Indianapolis north side in 1989, she has been a member of Second Presbyterian Church. For the past five years she has been a resident of Robin Run Health Care and more recently Greenwood Health and Living Community.

Survivors include a daughter, Donna Eden; a son, Jim (Donna) Sweet; two sisters, Mary Alice (Dale) Harrod, and Margaret Brewer; grandchildren, Kim (Herb) Coffey, Brian (Sherri) Eden, Lori Kennedy, Andrea Eden, Brad (Heidi) Sweet, Marcy (David) Haboush, and Kari (Kevin) Miller; 13 great-grandchildren, and numerous nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by a brother, Elmer Kestner; a sister in law, Marjorie Kestner; and a son in law, Barry Eden.

Memorial services will be conducted at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday at Second Presbyterian Church, 7700 N. Meridian Street, Indianapolis. Inurnment will follow at Fairview Cemetery at Brownstown.

Friends may call from 4-7 p.m. Tuesday at Leppert Mortuary, Nora Chapel, Indianapolis.

Memorials, in lieu of flowers, may be directed to the church.
