Found Dead In Columbus

Remains Of Price Tabor, Formerly Of Brownstown, Brought Here For Burial.

The remains of Price Tabor, aged 42, of Columbus, formerly of Brownstown, were brought here for burial Saturday and interred in Fairview cemetery about 11:30 o'clock, following short services at the grave under auspices of Camp Jackson Post American Legion, No. 112.

Deceased, who was a veteran of the World War, was found dead at 11 o'clock Thursday morning in bed in his room at the Eagles home on South Washington street in Columbus.

Mr. Tabor had been in his usual health as far as is known and retired Wednesday night at his usual hour. His body was found by Mrs. Addie

Kennedy, matron at the Eagles rooms. Tabor was born in Brownstown the son of the late Erastus and Susan Elkins Tabor. He lived here most of his life. He was a brother of the late Louis Jackson Tabor, who was killed in action in the World War and who was cited for gallantry in general orders of the First division.

Surviving are his wife, one son, Melvin Lewis, three daughters, Ethel Louise, Evelyn Mae and Edith Marie at home; two sisters, Mrs. Mary Carter and Mrs. Louise Payne of Indianapolis and one brother, Ed Tabor of Brownstown.
