Wife of County Official Dies

Mrs. Lucy Belle Tatlock, age seventy-one, wife of James H. Tatlock, county superintendent of schools, died early Friday night at her home in Brownstown after an illness of one week's duration. Death was attributed to a cerebral hemorrhage.

Mrs. Tatlock was born May 13, 1874, near Freetown, the daughter of S. L. B. and Lucinda Cordell Moore, deceased. She was married on March 10, 1894, in Freetown, to James H. Tatlock, who survives.

A life-long resident of Jackson county, Mrs. Tatlock was well-known and liked by a wide circle of friends who mourn her death. She was a faithful member of the Brownstown Nazarene Church and was active in its organizations.

Besides the husband, she is survived by one son and two daughters, Sheldon Tatlock, of Sullivan, Mrs. Flossie Owens and Mrs. Maymie Stotz, both of Brownstown, and five grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

A brother, George W. Moore and a sister, Mrs. Louisa Brock, both of Freetown, also survive.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon from the Brownstown Nazarene Church with the Rev. Paul Hoult, pastor, in charge. Burial in Fairview Cemetery.

Friends may call at the home after 5 o'clock this afternoon.
