LAST RITES FOR MRS. MIRANDA TINCH TODAY

Funeral Services For Well
Known Woman Held
At Freetown.

Funeral services for Mrs. Miranda Tinch, one of the oldest and best known residents of Jackson county, mother of C. C. Tinch, of Brownstown, former county treasurer, who died Tuesday morning at her home in Freetown, were held at 2 o'clock this afternoon from the Freetown Methodist Church with the Rev. Leo S. Lovell, pastor of the Brownstown Methodist Church, in charge. Burial was in Fairview Cemetery Brownstown.

Mrs. Tinch, the widow of Dr. Edward T. Tinch, for many years prominent Jackson county physician, lived in this county for fifty-seven years, having been born in Selom. At the time of her death she was eighty-nine years of age and could trace five living generations in her family. Two great-great grandchildren are numbered among the surviving relatives, which include two sons, a daughter, a step-brother, a step-sister, twelve grandchildren and nineteen great grandchildren.
