Tovey—Mrs. Lillian L. Tovey, wife of Cale P. Tovey, formerly of Brownstown, passed away at her home in Seymour Friday morning at 3:20 o'clock, following a short illness.

Mrs. Tovey's death came as a shock to her Brownstown relatives and friends. She had been in failing health for some time, but was able to be up and about and was taken worse Thursday morning about 10:30 o'clock. Death was due to heart trouble.

She was a life-long resident of Jackson county. She was born in Brownstown May 29, 1862, to William and Polly Ann Tucker. On September 2, 1888, she was married at Seymour to Cale P. Tovey, who survives her. After their marriage they continued to make their home in Brownstown until October 6, 1917, when they moved to Seymour.

Mrs. Tovey united with the Christian church in Brownstown and later transferred her membership to the Seymour Christian church and took a vital interest in all church activities. She was a member of the Royal Neighbors lodge. She was devoted to her family and friends and was ever happy in being of service to those who needed her assistance.

Besides her husband she leaves one son, Nevlan Tovey, of Bedford; two daughters, Mrs. Edward McCrary and Mrs. C. A. Pruden, both of Seymour; three grandchildren and one niece, Miss Laura Tucker, of Indianapolis.

Funeral services were conducted at the home Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock in charge of the Rev. Elvin Daniels, pastor of the Seymour Christian church. Burial was made in Fairview cemetery, Brownstown, where services were in charge of the Rev. O. S. Brooke, assisted by T. J. Due, of Seymour.
