Walter W. Trowbridge, Brownstown Native, Dies—Burial Here

Graveside rites were held at Fairview Cemetery, here, Monday afternoon, for Walter W. Trowbridge, Columbus R8, who died at 4:15 o'clock Friday afternoon at Robert Long Hospital, Indianapolis, after a four-year illness.

Funeral rites were held at 1:30 o'clock Monday afternoon from the Barks and Snow funeral home, Columbus, in charge of the rev. Charles Byra, pastor of the United Pentecostal Church, and the funeral party came immediately to the cemetery for burial rites.

Mr. Trowbridge was born in Brownstown, August 21, 1913, a son of the late William and Celia Osee McCory Trowbridge. He was married to the former Miss Edna L. Lambert, on August 31, 1934. The widow survives.

He had been an employee of the Cummins Engine Company in Columbus for 21 years and belonged to the United Pentecostal Church.

Surviving, in addition to the widow, are a son, Walter Leon Trowbridge, at home; a foster son, Ronnie Lee Trowbridge, at home; a daughter, Mrs. Morris Moore, Columbus R8; a brother, Robert Trowbridge, of Brownstown; four sisters, Mrs. Robert Comden, Franklin; Mrs. Earl Lindley, Indianapolis; Mrs. Floyd Pray, of Brownstown, and Mrs. Clarence Wheeler, of Vallonia, and two grandchildren.

A son, Roy Curtis Trowbridge, is deceased.
