Thomas Turnham

Funeral services for Thomas Turnham, 67, 216 E. Cross St., Brownstown, will be conducted at 2 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 1, from Zabel Funeral Home.

Mr. Turnham died at home at 6 p.m. Monday, following a five-month illness.

A native of Henderson, Ky., Mr. Turnham was born March 16, 1910, to Harry and Glenna Spillman Turnham, both of whom preceded him in death. He was married March 1, 1941, in Toledo, Ohio, to the former Lucille Jackson, who survives.

In addition to the widow, Mr. Turnham is survived by two sons, Harry Turnham, of North Branch, N.Y., Thomas Turnham Jr., Beuna Park, Calif., and five grandchildren.

Mr. Turnham moved to Brownstown in 1975, after retiring from the California Automobile Association, in Elmonte, Calif. He was a member of the Hickory Hills Country Club.

Friends may call at Zabel Funeral Home from 3-5 p.m. and from 7-9 p.m. today, Nov. 30.

Rev. Robert Riggs will officiate at the services, with burial following at Fairview Cemetery.
