Mrs. Luella Utterback, 88, a long-time resident of the Clear-spring vicinity, bedfast for the past six months due to infirmities, died Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Cora Dodds, 414 Ewing street, Seymour, where she made her home.

Funeral rites will be held at 2:00 o'clock Thursday afternoon from the Spurgeon Funeral Home here, in charge of Harold Barnett, pastor of the Austin Christian Church and former pastor of Wray's Christian Church.

Burial will be in Fairview Cemetery in Brownstown.

Mrs. Utterback was born March 19, 1871, at Salem, a daughter of the late E. B. Fields and Luanne Estes Fields.

She was married twice. Her first husband was Asa Pollert, whom she married in 1892 and in 1897 was married to William Utterback, both of whom are deceased.

Surviving are one daughter, Mrs. Rosalie Loudon, of Seymour, three granddaughters, Mrs. Herschel Motsinger, Mrs. Fred Hampton and Miss Lorene Loudon, all of California, and three grandsons, John Loudon, of California, Leon Loudon and Malcolm Loudon, both of Seymour. She also leaves 12 great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Utterback spent most of her eighty-eight years in Clear-spring. She was a member of the Clearspring Home Demonstration Club, and active in this organization as long as her health permitted and also a member of Wray's Christian Church.
