RITEs ARE HELD FOR CHARLES DAVID VINCENT

Major Portion of His Life Had Been Spent in Jackson County—Relatives Here.

Funeral services were conducted Sunday from the Clear-spring Baptist Church for Charles David Vincent age sixty, who died at Schneck Memorial Hospital Friday night September 12. The Rev. Keithley, of Clear-spring, was in charge. Burial was in Fairview Cemetery, Brownstown.

Mr. Vincent was the son of Jerous and Amanda Hawkins Vincent, both deceased. He was born in Illinois and when a small child moved to Jackson county where he spent a major portion of his life. He was a Free Mason, a member of Bailiff Lodge No. 216, of Jonesville. A host of relatives and friends mourn his death.

He is survived by a half-sister, Mrs. Mildred Knox, of Minneapolis, Minn.; a sister-in-law, Mrs. A. J. Vincent, of Jonesville and nieces and nephews, the children of his brother, the late Alvin J. Vincent, who died in April: Mrs. G. F. Welmer, of Columbus; Mrs. Magdalene Lain, of Canton, Ohio; Mrs. Martin W. Steinwedel, of Seymour; Alvin Kenneth Vincent, of South Bend; R. K. Vincent, of Indianapolis; Roger E. Vincent, of Louisville; Forrest Vincent, of Indianapolis and Price H. Vincent, of Camp Shelby, Miss.
