Mrs. Georgia Wallace Dies At Brownstown

Mrs. Georgia D. Wallace, 71, of Brownstown, died Sunday afternoon at Schneck Memorial Hospital here. She had been in failing health for the past three years and her condition had been critical for the past two weeks.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon from the Winklepleck Funeral Home in Brownstown with the Rev. Charles W. Taylor, pastor of the Brownstown Methodist Church, in charge. Burial in Fairview Cemetery, Brownstown.

Friends may call at the Winklepleck Funeral Home, Brownstown, at any time.

Mrs. Wallace was born February 19, 1882, in Indiana, the daughter of the late George and Carrie Phifer Downing. She spent virtually all of her life in Brownstown and was married April 18, 1900, in Seymour to Harry E. Wallace, who survives.

A member of the Brownstown Methodist Church, she was a regular attendant and maintained an active interest in the church until her health failed. She was a charter member of the Wednesday Club in Brownstown and was known as a very gracious person who stood for fine things in the community and enjoyed the acquaintance of a wide circle of friends.

Besides the husband, she is survived by two children: Lew Downing Wallace, of Brownstown and Mrs. Harriett Whitson, of Indianapolis. Three grandchildren and one great grandchild also survive.
