Charles Waskom Dies At Westport—Rites Monday Morning

Funeral rites were held Monday morning from the Burkholder Chapel, in Seymour, for Charles William Waskom, Sr., 45, formerly of Redding Road, north of Seymour.

Mr. Waskom died Thursday night in Westport after a short illness.

A native of Jackson County, he was born March 3, 1923, a son of Rosa Becker Waskom, of Crothersville R1, and the late Clark Waskom.

He was a World War II veteran.

Surviving are the widow, the former Thelma VonDielingen and five children, Mrs. Gaynell Durham, Seymour; Charles Waskom, Jr., at home; Marcus Waskom, Seymour and David and Fred Waskom, also at home.

He also leaves a sister, Mrs. Anita Wilkerson, New Augusta, Mississippi, and two grandchildren.
