Comment:

Waskom—Omri W. Waskom, age almost 81 years, whose illness has been mentioned, passed away at the home of his son, Rescoe Waskom, in Brownstown this morning about 9 o'clock. Death was due to general infirmities. He had been sick about a year.

Funeral services in charge of the Rev. Walter Moseley of Uniontown will be held at the Baptist church Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Burial in Fairview cemetery.

Mr. Waskom was a native of Grassy Fork township. He was one of a family of ten children born to Jacob and Mary Ann Downing Waskom. He was born at Waskom March 13, 1857, where he spent his boyhood days. He was a farmer by occupation. He was a member of the Baptist church and the Haymakers Lodge. In June, 1885, he was married in Brownstown to Miss Emma Pfenning. Five children were born to their union, two dying in infancy.

Besides the son at whose home he died, he leaves another son, Maurice Waskom, of Greencastle, and a daughter, Mrs. Amy Brown, of Chicago; one brother, William Waskom, of Tampico; a sister, Mrs. Julietta Rucker, of Seymour; three grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.
