Mrs. Nina Weathers Hull Former Resident, Dies

Funeral rites were held Monday afternoon from the Hulse Funeral Home in Ottawa, Illinois, for Mrs. Nina Weathers Hull, for many years a resident of Brownstown. Mrs. Hull, who was a sister-in-law of Mrs. Elmer Kennedy, of Brownstown, died last Friday morning at the residence in Ottawa, after a short illness. She was 81 years old.

She was born in Washington county, April 10, 1872, one of ten children of the late William and Susanna Shields Cartwright. Her first husband was the late James Weathers and in December, 1948, she was married to Charles Hull, who survives.

Shortly after her first marriage she moved to Brownstown and lived here until about four years ago. She was a member of the Brownstown Methodist Church and was affiliated with its auxiliary groups.

Surviving in addition to the husband, in Ottawa, and Mrs. Kennedy, are three daughters, Mrs. Ernest Cox, Chicago; Mrs. Cleon Shaw, Peru, Ind., and Mrs. Clark McAlpine, of Chicago, and two sons, J. R. Weathers, of Benton, Illinois, and William Weathers, who is a patient in the Veterans' Hospital, Dayton, Ohio.

Also surviving are eight grandchildren, four great-grandchildren, and a sister, Mrs. J. C. Robertson, of near Scottsburg.

Mrs. Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. Robertson and Mr. and Mrs. Burkey Gross, also of Scott county, attended the funeral rites, returning to their home from Ottawa Tuesday afternoon.
