Ralph L. Weaver, 59, Brownstown RI, Dies

Ralph L. Weaver, 59, Brownstown RI, died at his home at 12:20 p. m. Sunday of a coronary occlusion. He had been ill with a heart condition since August.

Mr. Weaver was born on December 25, 1898, in the Goss Mill community, the son of the late Thomas J. and Bettie Lucas Weaver. He was married to the former Mattie May Brown on December 23, 1922 in Muncie, Ind.

He was a member of the Ratcliff Grove Christian Church, and worked for many years for the Robertson Mill in Ewing. Mr. Weaver was very well known in the community, and was very well liked. He was known as being very friendly, and had many friends and acquaintances who mourn his passing. He was a life-long resident of Jackson County.

Survivors include the widow; four sons, Robert Weaver of Brownstown RI, Louis T. Weaver of Seymour, Lee G. Weaver of Ewing, and Ralph Weaver, Jr., at home; one daughter, Mrs. Carl Roberts of Brownstown RI; two brothers, Orville Weaver of Dayton, Ohio, and Jessie Weaver of Hammond; one sister, Mrs. Otis Ferguson of Brownstown; and 11 grandchildren.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2:30 p. m. Wednesday from the Ratcliff Grove Christian Church, with the Rev. C. C. Fruth, pastor of E. U. B. Church in Medora, in charge. Burial in Fairview Cemetery in Brownstown.

Friends may call at the Winklepleck Funeral Home in Brownstown after 7 p. m. tonight.
