Heart Attack Fatal To Thomas V. Weaver— Rites Held Monday

Funeral rites were held Monday afternoon from the Winklepleck Funeral Home here, followed by burial in Fairview Cemetery, for Thomas V. Weaver, 79-year-old retired county farmer and life-long resident of this community.

Mr. Weaver died suddenly from a heart attack in the yard at his home on Freetown Rd, west of Brownstown, shortly after 8 o'clock Monday morning.

He had been in failing health for some time and since the death of his wife last March his condition had become steadily worse.

He was born on August 20, 1876, west of Brownstown, the son of the late Jacob and Jane Browning Weaver and had spent all of his life in this community. On November 13, 1898, he was married in this county to Bertie Lucas, who died last March 25.

Surviving are a daughter and four sons including Mrs. Frona Ferguson, of Brownstown; Ralph Weaver, of near Brownstown; Jesse Weaver, Hammond, Indiana; Orville Weaver, Dayton, Ohio, and Clyde Weaver, of Madison.

Also surviving is a grandson, Carroll Weaver, who was reared in his grandparents' home, a half-brother, Bryan Weaver, thirteen other grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Gene Dulin, pastor of Brownstown Christian Church, conducted the funeral rites.
