Barkman Rites Held Saturday

Funeral services for William C. Barkman, age fifty-four, a former Brownstown resident, were conducted at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon from the home of his brother, Charles H. Barkman, in Brownstown, with the Rev. William L. Richmond, pastor of the Brownstown Christian Church, in charge. Burial was in Fairview Cemetery, Brownstown, Camp Jackson Post No. 112, American Legion, conducted military rites.

Mr. Barkman died October 18 at Rockford, Ill. Death occurred suddenly and was due to a heart attack.

He was born at Brownstown on August 18, 1884, the son of the late John H. and Zulima Bland Barkman. He spent his early life there and was a member of the Brownstown Christian Church. He went to Indianapolis when rather young and followed the occupation of machinist. He enlisted at Quincy, Ill., during the World War and served in the hospital corps during that conflict, being engaged in actual service overseas for a period of twenty-six months. He was a member of the American Legion at Rockford.

Mr. Barkman was well known in Brownstown and possessed a friendly disposition that endeared him to all who knew him.
