One Of Branaman Triplets Dies

Graveside rites were held Monday afternoon in Fairview Cemetery for Diane A. Branaman, one of triplets, two girls and a boy, born at the county hospital on Friday morning to Glen A. and Sara Jane Beard Branaman, R2, Brownstown.

The infants were the first triplets born at the hospital in its 54-year history.

Little Diane A. Branaman was the last of the three babies to be born and weighed 3 pounds and 2 ounces. First of the triplets was a little boy, who weighed 2 pounds and 12 ounces and the second was the other girl who weighed 3 pounds and 6 ounces. All three babies were born within six minutes.

The Rev. Harold Barnett, pastor of the Austin Christian Church and former pastor of Wray's Christian Church in Jackson county, conducted the brief rites at the grave and prayer service at the Winklepleck Funeral Home.

The baby is survived by the parents, the other triplets, Dwayne A. and Darlene Ann Branaman, another brother, Charles Eugene Branaman; grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Onis Glen Branaman, of Seymour, and William Beard, of Arkansas, and two great-grandparents, Mrs. Mabel Gray, of Ewing, and Mrs. Effie Branaman, of Elizabethtown.

Other relatives of the infant are Mr. and Mrs. Hugh (Jeff) Gray, Jr., of Brownstown, Brownstown Police Chief and Mrs. Joseph Gray and Mr. and Mrs. Robert O'Hara, of Brownstown.
