Mrs. Bertha Cheyne Buried Here Saturday

Mrs. Bertha Cheyne, age 80 years, passed away at her home in Indianapolis Thursday following an illness of six weeks.

She was born in Brownstown March 2, 1873, the daughter of the late Henry and Hettie Cummins Scott and spent her girlhood days here. In early life she united with the Methodist church. She possessed a lovely disposition and made a host of friends.

Mrs. Cheyne was married in Brownstown April 30, 1894, to Frederick H. Cheyne. Soon after their marriage they went to Indianapolis where she spent the remainder of her life. Mr. Cheyne preceded her in death in December, 1940.

She is survived by one son, Thomas L. Cheyne, of Indianapolis, and three sisters, Mrs. Mabel Bolles and Mrs. Loraine Osborne, both of Indianapolis, and Mrs. Flossie McKee, of Houston, Texas.

Funeral services in charge of the Rev. Leroy Hodapp were conducted at the Freeney and Freeney Funeral Home in Indianapolis Saturday morning. Burial was made in Fairview Cemetery, Brownstown.
