Comment:

BRUCE CLARK,³ formerly a resident of this place, died at his home in Bedford, Monday, February 17th, of hasty consumption, at the age of 28 years and 5 months, after only a week's illness but during which time he was not bedfast. Deceased was a son of Wm. Clark and was born and reared in Brownstown, thus having a broad acquaintance here. The remains were brought to this place Tuesday afternoon on No. 8, accompanied by his father, Wm. Clark, his brother, George, and Thomas Owens, a brother-in-law, and were laid to rest in Fairview Cemetery after short funeral services at the grave. The relatives are extended the sympathy of a large circle of warm friends in their bereavement. Deceased was better known here as "Jack" Clark.
