Peggy "Peg" Gans, 80, Seymour, passed away peacefully Friday, May 21, 2010, at Methodist Hospice, Indianapolis.

Peg was a wonderful mother and extraordinary "Nanaw."

Her family was her life. Peg loved music, yard work, working in flower beds, making photo albums, walking, taking cruises, laughter and entertaining. Peg's love of life and effervescent personality touched all that she met. She will be missed by many, many family members and friends. She absolutely knew no stranger. She was a member of Central Christian Church and was a strong supporter of the Humane Society of Jackson County.

Born July 4, 1929, in Greenwood, she was the daughter of Charles Preston and Gladys Jewel McMahan, both of whom preceded her in death. She will be greatly missed by her husband, Jack Gans; her daughter, Julie Jackson; her two grandchildren, Melissa Jackson and Micah Jackson; and her three sisters, Marilyn Olinger, Joyce Shepherd and Shirley Bennett.

She was preceded in death by her stepfather, Carl "Bones" Willey, and her husband, Ervin Loren Williams.

Peg's Celebration of Life will be held June 4 at Chateau de Pique in Seymour, with details to be announced at a later date. The Rev. Steve Cherry will be officiating a short service with reception to follow.
