Comment:

Melvin Wineinger, Sr., 81, of Seymour, died at 12 noon Saturday, April 8, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Perry (Esther) Aynes.

A lifelong resident of Jackson County, he was a retired farmer, a veteran of World War I, and a member of the Disabled Veterans organization.

He was born June 27, 1896, in Kurtz, to the late James Matthew and Nancy Hubbard Wineinger. On Nov. 5, 1917, he was married in Ewing to the former Nora Phegley, who preceded him in death in October 1974.

Survivors in addition to his daughter,

Mrs. Aynes, include four sons, Malcolm Wineinger, of Seymour Rt. 1, Max Wineinger, of Elizabethtown, Joseph Wineinger, of Waldron, Mich., and Melvin Wineinger, Jr., of Toledo, Ohio; four daughters, Mrs. Elmo (Mabel) Fleetwood, of Seymour Rt. 5, Mrs. Herbert (Ruth) Smelter, of LaPorte, Mrs. Morton (Faye) Combs, of Freetown, and Mrs. Clifford (Opal) Mears, of Toledo, Ohio; a sister, Mrs. Sophia Newkirk, of Seymour; and several grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Five brothers, three sisters, and two sons preceded him in death.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday afternoon, April 11, from the Winklepleck-Weesner Funeral Home, Brownstown, with the Rev. Steve Nance, pastor of the Surprise Christian Church, officiating. Burial was at Fairview Cemetery, Brownstown.
