Ralph Wineinger

Ralph Wineinger, 80, of 116 Jackson St. in Brownstown died at 11 a.m. Sunday, May 5, at Hoosier Christian Village after a 1½-year illness.

He had been a school teacher for 34 years at Mt. Zion, Sparksville and Vallonia, retiring in 1971.

The Revs. George Plasterer and Wilson Lovell conducted the funeral Tuesday, May 7, at Winklepleck-Weesner Funeral Home in Brownstown. Burial was at Fairview Cemetery in Brownstown.

Mr. Wineinger was born Aug. 31, 1904, in Jackson County to the late Curtis and Myrtle Beavers Wineinger. The lifetime resident of Jackson County married on Feb. 19, 1935, in Louisville, Ky., the former Florence Taylor, who survives.

Other survivors include a brother, Meredith Wineinger of Seymour, and several nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by one brother.

He was a member of the Brownstown United Methodist Church and the Retired Teachers Assn. at local, state and national levels.

Memorials may be made in the form of donations to the American Heart Assn.
