Services Conducted For John Woloson

Funeral services were conducted for John A. Woloson, 65, at 10 a. m. today from the Royster and Askin Mortuary in Indianapolis.

Mr. Woloson, who lived at 435 North Berwick avenue, Indianapolis, died of a heart attack at 5:30 p. m. Friday. He was the step-father of Robert D. Miller, 908 South Poplar street, Seymour.

Burial was in the Fairview Cemetery at Brownstown.

Woloson was born June 30, 1900. On Feb. 19, 1964, he was married at Indianapolis to the former Mattie Miller Shelton, a native of Brownstown. She survives.

He retired about a year ago from his occupation as a tool engineer for the Chrysler Corporation. He was a member of the American Society of Tool Engineers and also was a member of the Masons of Detroit, Mich.

In addition to his widow, and step-son from Seymour, he is survived by a step-daughter, Mrs. Peggy Garrett, Indianapolis; a daughter, Miss Delores Woloson, Detroit, Mich.; and two sons, Steven Woloson, Detroit, and Theodore Woloson, Dayton, O.
