W. Woodmansee Called By Death

Winfield Scott Woodmansee, age fifty-eight, residing near Brownstown, died suddenly this morning at his home. Death was due to heart disease. He had been milking cows and complained of feeling ill when he returned to the house. He died before the arrival of a physician.

Mr. Woodmansee was born on September 24, 1879 and would have observed his fifty-ninth birthday anniversary this week. He was the son of Winfield and Eldora Wayman Woodmansee. He was married to Minnie Schwein, who survives.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodmansee were the parents of five children, four of whom survive. They are: Mrs. Grace Isaacs, of Greenwood; Carl Woodmansee, at home; Mrs. Catherine Bryant, of Seymour; Mrs. Doris Pierce, at home. Two sisters, Mrs. Myrtle Schwein and Mrs. Belle Heller, both of Brownstown, and five grandchildren also survive.

Funeral arrangements have not been made.

Funeral services for Winfield Scott Woodmansee, age fifty-eight, residing near Brownstown, who died suddenly Monday morning at his home, were conducted at 2 o'clock this afternoon from the Brownstown Presbyterian Church. Burial was in Fairview Cemetery.
