Wilmer L. Woolf
June 14, 1921-Sept. 20, 2002

Wilmer L. "Buss" Woolf, 81, Seymour, died at 1:41 p.m. Friday, Sept. 20, 2002, at his home.

Mr. Woolf was a member of Central Christian Church, Seymour, and was a U.S. Army veteran of World War II. He was a railroad signalman with the B&O Railroad and Chessie System. He belonged to Jackson County Masonic Lodge 146 and of the Scottish Rite and Murat Shrine, both of Indianapolis, and was a member of Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 1925, American Legion Post 89, Elks Club and Eagles, all of Seymour. He lived most of his Jackson County.

Born June 14, 1921, in Holton, he was a son of Frank Woolf and Maude Franklin Woolf. Both preceded him in death. On Aug. 13, 1941, in Seymour, he married Shirley L. Burrell, who survives in Seymour.

Other survivors include a son, John R. Woolf, Madison; two grandchildren, Michelle Woolf, Græntfield, and Kelly J. Klepper, Fairland; and a great-grandson, Ty Klepper.

A brother, Norman Woolf, and a sister, Edith Franklin, preceded him in death.

The Rev. Sam Davenport and the Rev. Stan Thomas will conduct services at 11 a.m. Monday at Voss and Sons Funeral Service, Voss Chapel, Seymour, with burial to follow at Fairview Cemetery, Brownstown. A Masonic service is planned for 5 p.m. Sunday at Voss Chapel, and full military graveside services will be conducted by VFW Post 1925, American Legion Post 89, Disabled American Veterans 47 and Vietnam Veterans 7, all of Seymour.

Friends may call from 2 p.m. to 6 p.m. Sunday and from 10 a.m. until time of service Monday at the funeral home. Memorials may be given to Central Christian Church.
