Wendell Zaring Is Found Dead This Morning

Wendell Zaring, well-known Grassy Fork township retired farmer, was found dead about 9:00 o'clock this morning at his home two miles northwest of Tampico.

Mrs. Zaring had spent the night in Seymour with the family of her son, Charles Zaring, and when she returned home she found Mr. Zaring lying across the bed, dead.

It is believed death occurred Tuesday night since all lights in the house still were burning.

Mr. Zaring, who is about seventy years old, was born at Tampico, a son of the late Dr. and Mrs. P. A. Zaring. He grew up in Brownstown where his father was a practicing physician for a number of years.

He was graduated from Brownstown High School with the Class of 1913 and was a veteran of World War I.

Surviving are the widow, the former Miss Lillian Hoffmeier, of Seymour; two sons, Charles Zaring, Seymour R2, and Dr. Wendell Zaring, of Kenton, Ohio; several grandchildren; two brothers, Roswald Zaring, South O'Brien street road, Seymour, and Dr. Bryon Zaring, Columbus, and a sister, Mrs. Lenora Morford, of Indianapolis.

Another sister, Miss Rosa Nell Zaring is deceased.

Funeral arrangements are being made by the Johnson Funeral Home, Vallonia.
