Mrs. Minnie O. Acton Dies At Indianapolis— Rites, Burial Here

Funeral rites were held Sunday afternoon from the Zabel Funeral Home here, followed by burial in Brownstown Fairview Cemetery, for 87-year-old Mrs. Minnie O. Acton, a resident of Brownstown until ten years ago.

Mrs. Acton died in General Hospital, Indianapolis, Thursday night.

Born in Brownstown, May 10, 1872, Mrs. Acton was the daughter of the late Larkin and Sarah Loudermilk Kennedy. She was married to the late John Acton.

Mrs. Acton spent all of her life in Brownstown with the exception of the last ten years which she spent with a daughter, Mrs. Rose Wrighthouse in Indianapolis.

Surviving are another daughter, Mrs. Verna Kutz, of San Francisco, California and three grandchildren, Mrs. Ellis Bland and Mrs. Stanley Hutton, both of Indianapolis, whom Mrs. Acton reared, and a grandson, Richard Kutz, of San Francisco.

Mrs. Acton was a member of Brownstown Christian Church, whose minister, E. Lacy Satterfield, was in charge of the funeral rites.
