Comment:

Allen—Clarence Allen, whose illness has often been mentioned in these columns, passed away at his home in Brownstown Saturday evening, following a long illness of tuberculosis.

Funeral services were conducted at the Methodist church Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock by Rev. T. G. Smith, of Osgood, assisted by Rev. T. J. Anthony, after which the remains were laid to rest in Fairview cemetery.

Obituary

Clarence O. Allen, youngest son of James W. and Hannah M. Allen, both deceased, was born in Brownstown, Indiana, September 26, 1871; died October 6, 1923, aged 52 years and 10 days.

He was married to Miss Blanche Weddel, August 25, 1901, who died July 12, 1903. To this union was born one child, Mrs. Alberta Brock, who is now living at Palmyra, Ind. He was afterwards married to Miss Julia Berry Sept. 17, 1905. To this union were born three children, two girls and one boy, the oldest, a girl, dying in infancy, while Eudora and Clarence B., with their mother are left to mourn the loss of a father and husband. He also leaves three brothers, Charles M. and Sherman of Brownstown and Wilbur W. of Washington, Ind., and four sisters, Mrs. Rose Jackson of Free-town, Mrs. Anna McKain, Miss Ella Allen and Mrs. Lee McCrary, of Brownstown, and one little granddaughter, Frances June Brock.

He spent his entire life in Brownstown except about two years which was spent in Centralia, Ill. He was a barber for twenty-five years and by courteous treatment and pleasant manners won for himself many friends, both of the town people and others as well, which friendship proved a consolation and help to him in his long illness. He had been sick for more than one year and confined to his home since last January suffering intensely, which he bore with great patience. He joined the Methodist church February 9, 1916, during the pastorate of Rev. A. F. Hogan.

He was a member of Modern Woodman Lodge of Centralia, Ill., and of Washington Lodge No. 13, F. and A. M. of Brownstown.

He was a kind and loving husband and father and will not only be missed by his family but by a large circle of friends.
