Mrs. Charles Greger Dies In Terre Haute— Burial Rites Here

Graveside burial rites were held at Fairview Cemetery, here, this afternoon, for Mrs. Charles Greger, of Terre Haute, a native of Brownstown.

Mrs. Greger died Monday in Terre Haute.

The former Miss Grace Allen, she was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Allen, of Brownstown, and was born and grew up here.

Her late husband was a pharmacist in Terre Haute for many years and, in later life, held a government position.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Kathy Mitten, of Oaktown, and another married daughter, the former Miss Dorothy Greger, now living in California.

She also leaves a sister, Miss Katherine Allen, of Terre Haute, formerly of Brownstown and Seymour.

Mrs. Greger was a sister-in-law of Mrs. Walter Greger, an aunt-by-marriage of Charles and Arthur Greger, of Brownstown, and an aunt of Oakley Allen, of Seymour.

The late Mr. Greger was a brother of the late Arthur Greger, the late Walter Greger and the late Miss Laura Greger of Brownstown.
