Mrs. Ruth Allen Dies In Hospital

Mrs. Ruth Ann Allen, 66, wife of the late Oakley M. Allen, Sr., former Jackson county Democratic chairman, died this morning at 4:45 o'clock at Schneck Memorial Hospital, where she was admitted Wednesday.

Mrs. Allen is a descendant of a pioneer and widely-known Indiana family and the mother of Oakley M. Allen, Jr., Seymour merchandiser and commanding officer of Seymour Company B of the Indiana National Guard.

Mrs. Allen had been seriously ill since January, due to a heart condition. She was a patient for a time in Methodist Hospital in Indianapolis. As soon as her condition permitted she was removed by ambulance to her son's home in this city. She formerly lived in Seymour, Jeffersonville and Brownstown.

She was born in the latter city November 1, 1889, the daughter of the late Walter and Emma England Johnston, and was married at Brownstown May 2, 1908 to Mr. Allen, whose death occurred in March, 1947.

Prior to returning to Seymour to make her home with her son, Mrs. Allen was employed in the office of the American State Insurance Company at Indianapolis. She was a member of the First Methodist Church at Seymour and the We're Here Club of Brownstown.

In addition to her son, she is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Erline Elliott of Jeffersonville.

Funeral services will be conducted Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Brownstown Methodist Church with the Rev. Emery Parks, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Seymour, officiating. Burial in Fairview Cemetery, Brownstown.

Friends may call at the Tower and Burkholder Funeral Home in Seymour after 3:30 o'clock Friday afternoon and at the Brownstown Methodist Church from noon Saturday until time for funeral services.
