Bruce A. Allman Dead On Arrival At Co. Hospital

Funeral Rites Held Monday
For Owner Allman Mobile Home Sales.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon from the Brownstown Christian Church for Bruce A. Allman, well-known local businessman and owner of the Allman Mobile Home Sales on West Commerce Street.

Mr. Allman was pronounced dead on arrival at the Jackson County Hospital at 3:30 o'clock Friday afternoon where he was rushed following a massive heart attack.

Mr. Allman suffered a heart attack some time ago for which he was hospitalized but apparently had completely recovered and was operating his business as usual.

A native of Jackson County, he was born May 12, 1903, a son of the late William R. and Mollie Barr Allman.

On June 19, 1926, he was married at New Castle, to Nina Hall, who survives, as do a son, Richard Lee Allman, of Seymour, and two daughters, Mrs. Ronald (Sandra) Shoemaker, of Brownstown, and Mrs. Richard (Betty Jean) Personette, of Oshkosh, Wisconsin.

Also surviving are two brothers, Oscar "Pip" Allman, well-known auctioneer and Dewey Allman, both of Seymour, and two sisters, Mrs. Raymond Gaiter, of Brownstown, and Mrs. Everett Hupp, of Brownstown R1.

Two sisters are deceased.

Mr. Allman was a member of the Brownstown Christian Church, Washington Lodge No. 13, Free & Accepted Masons, of Brownstown; Seymour Commandry No. 56, Knights Templar and Seymour Chapter No. 85, Royal Arch Masons, of Seymour and was a 32nd degree Mason and a member of the Indianapolis Valley of Scottish Rite and also of the Jackson County Scottish Rite Club.

Evan Bolejack, pastor of the Brownstown Christian Church, was in charge of the funeral rites and interment was in Fairview Cemetery.

Masonic Memorial Services were held at the Spurgeon Funeral Home at 8:00 o'clock Sunday evening.
