Aletha Hall Applewhite

Nov. 4, 1909-June 28, 2002

Aletha Hall Applewhite, 92, of Bonita Springs, Fla., died Friday, June 28, 2002, at her residence.

Mrs. Hall was a graduate of Lebanon High School and received a master's degree in education from Indiana University. She taught at Templeton Elementary School, Bloomington, until her retirement. She was a member of the Brownstown Chapter of Tri Kappa and Brownstown Presbyterian Church until she moved to Bonita Springs, Fla., in 1982 where she was a member of First Presbyterian Church of Bonita Springs and the Ruth Circle. She was a volunteer for the Bonita Springs Laubach Literacy Program and at Bonita Springs Elementary School. She had a passion for education.

Born Nov. 4, 1909, in Thorntown, she was the daughter of Thomas and Josie D. Hall, who both preceded her in death.

She is survived by a daughter, Nancy (Russell) Brown, Naples, Fla.; a son,

Gene Applewhite, Columbus; five granddaughters, Cindy Bowman Elser and Aletha Bowman Wray, both of Naples, Fla., Rachel Bowman Combs, Lindale, Texas, Susan Cepela, Park Forest, Ill., and Lauren Krippel, Cresthill, Ill.; two grandsons, Andy Applewhite, Seymour, and Erik Applewhite, Scipio; 12 great-grandchildren; three great-great-grandchildren; and Sandy Owens.

She also was preceded by a son, Thomas D. Applewhite; two great-granddaughters; and seven siblings.

A memorial service will be held at 3 p.m. Wednesday at Brownstown Presbyterian Church, Brownstown. A memorial service is also planned for the fall at First Presbyterian Church of Bonita Springs, Fla. Burial will be at Fairview Cemetery, Brownstown.

Memorials may be made to Hope Hospice, 9470 Health Park Circle, Ft. Myers, Fla. 33908, or Brownstown Presbyterian Church, Brownstown.
