Native Of Austin Expires In Georgia

Mrs. Ethel Ball, about 60, of Columbus, Ga., died early this morning in St. Francis Hospital at Columbus after suffering a stroke Monday morning.

She was a native of Austin and had lived several years in the Seymour and Brownstown areas. Her husband, Dr. William L. Ball, who died in 1937, was a dentist here for a number of years.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 p. m. Sunday from the Buchanan Funeral Home in Austin. The Rev. Harold Barnett, pastor of the Christian Church at Austin, will officiate. Burial in the Fairview Cemetery, Brownstown.

Friends may call any time after noon Saturday at the funeral home.

Mrs. Ball, the former Ethel Mae Christie, was born in Austin and in 1930 was married in the Christian Church at North Vernon.

She was a member of the Christian Church at Brownstown.

Mrs. Ball is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Sheila Chriswell, and a son, William Leon Ball, Jr., both of Columbus, Ga. Mrs. Ball had been residing at the home of her son.

She is also survived by five grandchildren and four brothers, Joe and Stanley Christie, both of Austin, Cap Christie, Terre Haute, and William Christie, who lives in California.

One sister and several brothers preceded her in death.
