BALL—Jas. M. Ball, whose sickness has been mentioned in these columns, died at the home of his son, Wm. C. Ball, May 12, 1915, aged 76 years and 18 days.

Deceased was a son of Spencer and Mary Ball and was born at Madison, Indiana, April 24, 1839. He was united in marriage to Eliza A. Baird, of Madison, October 9, 1860, who preceded him to the grave April 12, 1910. To their union were born six children of whom three survive him, viz: William, Gilbert and Edwin, all of this place. He also leaves two brothers, Robert, of Madison, and Wm. of Washington; nineteen grand children and three great-grand-children.

For about twelve years Mr. and Mrs. Ball resided at Madison then moved to Dupont where they lived about nine years when they moved to Brownstown where he resided until his death. He was a building contractor by profession but had not followed the trade for the past twenty years. For a number of years he conducted a restaurant at Ewing, but for the past five years has lived a retired life. Deceased was well-known throughout the county and had many friends who will regret to learn of his death.

The funeral services were conducted at the Christian church Friday afternoon at two o'clock, Rev. T. J. Due officiating, after which the remains were laid to rest in Fairview cemetery
