DEATH RECORD

Banks—D. L. Banks, Jr., age 14, passed away at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Banks, in Brownstown Monday morning, October 28, at 8:30 o'clock.

He was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Banks and was born at Ewing October 11, 1921, making his age at the time of his death 14 years and 17 days. Three weeks before his death he was taken seriously ill with diphtheria. He had recovered from this disease, but it had left him with heart trouble which was the cause of his death.

"June", as he was familiarly known to his friends, was of a sunny, fun-loving disposition. He had a home where his playmates were always welcome. In his illness, he was thoughtful of his mother, never wishing to cause her extra trouble and did everything he could for himself.

He leaves to hold him in loving remembrance, his parents; grandmother, Mrs. Ed Shelton, and many other relatives and friends.

Funeral services were held at the Baptist church this afternoon at 2 o'clock in charge of the pastor, Rev. Marlett, assisted by the Rev. E. E. Pedicord, Christian minister. Burial in Fairview cemetery.
