Louis E. Banks, Kurtz Resident, Dies, Rites Set

Louis E. Banks, 85, of Kurtz, died Monday night at the Veterans Administration Hospital in Indianapolis after an illness of two months.

A retired farmer, he was a member of a Methodist Church, was a World War I veteran and a 50-year member of Camp Jackson, Post No. 112, American Legion.

Mr. Banks was born June 20, 1889, in Jackson County, to the late Samuel and Nancy Hooker Banks. On May 13, 1919, he married Mabel Gossman, who preceded him in death on March 1, 1947. On September 15, 1955, he married Dorothy Moore, who preceded him in death on July 18, 1969.

Survivors include three sons, Glen M. Banks, of Martinsville, Melvin Banks, of Willowick, Ohio, and Randall Banks, of Hall, Ind.; one daughter, Mrs. Clyde (Mildred) Goble, of Brownstown; one sister, Mrs. Lora Maschino, of Seymour; two stepsons, Lloyd Moore, of the U.S. Army, and Ernest Moore, of Brownstown; two stepdaughters, Mrs. Lula Edwards, of Seymour, and Mrs. Marshall Blake, of Kurtz; 14 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. Five brothers preceded him in death.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 p. m. Thursday from the Spurgeon Funeral Home in Brownstown with the Rev. Donald Canaday, pastor of the Kurtz Nazarene Church, officiating. Burial will be in Fairview Cemetery.

Military services will be conducted by Camp Jackson Post 112.

Friends may call after 2 p. m. Wednesday at the Spurgeon Funeral Home.
