Mrs. Barkman's Funeral Held

Funeral services for Mrs. Nellie Barkman, 73, of Indianapolis, formerly of Brownstown, were conducted this afternoon from the Zabel Funeral Home, Brownstown, with the Rev. Ernest Anderson, pastor of the Brownstown Baptist Church in charge. Burial was in Fairview Cemetery, Brownstown.

Mrs. Barkman died at 12:05 a. m. Saturday at the Turtle Creek Convalescent Home, Indianapolis, following eight weeks' illness.

She was born June 15, 1894, in Brownstown, the daughter of the late James T. and Belladora Snyder Blevins. She was married June 15, 1912, in Clark County to Bruce Barkman, who died about 10 years ago.

Mrs. Barkman is survived by two daughters; Mrs. Irving Schneider, Seymour R1, and Mrs. Robert L. McGathey, of Indianapolis; one brother, Fred Blevins, of Logansport; one sister, Mrs. Goldie Branson, of Indianapolis; 10 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren. One son died in infancy and one daughter also preceded her in death.
