Theodore Beaver

Theodore E. Beaver, 84, of Indianapolis, died Wednesday, June 3, at Community Hospital, Indianapolis.

He was born in Freetown and spent his boyhood and school years in the Freetown and Brownstown area. His parents, John and Arizona Beaver, owned a farm near Freetown. He had lived in Indianapolis for 30 years.

Mr. Beaver was employed for 24 years by Detroit Diesel-Allison Division of General Motors Corporation. He had been retired for 19 years and during that time had been active as an artist. He based many of his paintings on scenes he remembered while growing up in the Brownstown area.

He was a member of the Brownstown Masonic Lodge and Eastgate Christian Church.

Survivors include his wife, Sarah Mae Jarvis Beaver; a daughter, Betty J. Beaver; two grandchildren, and four great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted June 6 with burial in Fairview Cemetery.
