Almond "Al" Beavers, Ex-Orchardman, Dies

Almond "Al" Beavers, 81, Brownstown R1, well known former operator of extensive fruit orchards for a number of years west of Ratcliff Grove on the Clearspring ridge in western Jackson county, died at 3:45 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at Schneck Memorial Hospital where he was admitted last Thursday for medical treatment. Mr. Beavers had been in failing health for several years and his condition had been worse since the death of his wife January 20, 1952.

Funeral services will be conducted at 1:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon from the Winklepleck Funeral Home at Brownstown with the Rev. Charles W. Fisher, Christian minister at Norman, in charge. Burial in Fairview Cemetery, Brownstown.

Friends may call at the Winklepleck Funeral Home after 7 o'clock tonight.

Mr. Beavers was born August 30, 1872, near Spraytown, the son of the late Emanuel and Malinda Martin Beavers. He spent all of his life in western Jackson county and was married on June 3, 1894, in Jackson county to Alice Hanners, who died January 20, 1952. He was a member of Wray's Christian Church and was a farmer as long as his health permitted, having operated a large fruit orchard, featuring peaches, in western Jackson county for a number of years. He was widely known by a host of friends who mourn his death.

He is survived by two sons: William H. Bevers, of Mitchell and Arlie Beavers, of Bedford; one brother, John Beavers, residing in the Ratcliff Grove vicinity on Brownstown R1 and two sisters: Mrs. Jessie Banks, and Mrs. Ollie Beavers Stockwell, both residing on Brownstown R1. Nine grandchildren and 11 great grandchildren also survive.
