Graveside Rites This Afternoon For Edgar Eugene Beck

Graveside rites were held this afternoon at Fairview Cemetery, for Edgar Eugene Beck, of Kansas City, Missouri, a former-Brownstown resident.

Mr. Beck was 75 years old and was a brother-in-law of Leo Lucas, of Brownstown, and Clarence Lucas, of Reddington, and of the late M. O. Lucas.

He was an uncle of Mrs. Mae Kindred and Mrs. James Eisele, of Brownstown; Bernard Lucas and Joe Lucas, of Freetown and Kenneth Lucas, of Columbus.

His wife, who is deceased, was the former Ada Lucas. She also is buried in Fairview.

He also is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Virginia Stout, of Kansas City, and a son, Edgar J. Beck, of Virginia and a sister, Mrs. Georgia Anderson, of Kokomo.

The brief service at the grave was in charge of Evan Bolejack, Brownstown Christian Minister and the burial rites were in charge of the Spurgeon Funeral Home.

Edgar E. Beck, Sr., 75, of 9824 Winslow Place, died last night at the home. He was born in Brownstown, Ind., and had lived here 40 years. Mr. Beck retired 10 years ago from the Sheffield-Armco Steel company. He was a member of the Christian church. He was a 32nd degree Mason. He leaves a son; a daughter; a sister, Mrs. Georgie Anderson, Kokomo, Ind.; five grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. Graveside services will be at 2 o'clock Wednesday in Brownstown, Indiana.
