Charles Becker Dies After Long Illness

Charles J. Becker, 70, Crothersville R1, died at 9:45 o'clock Thursday night in his home after 16 months of illness caused by tuberculosis of the spine and recently complicated by pneumonia.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon from the Zabel Funeral Home at Brownstown with the Rev. Kenneth Martin of the Wegan Lutheran Church, in charge. Burial in Fairview Cemetery, Brownstown.

Friends may call at the funeral home after 10 o'clock Saturday morning.

Mr. Becker was born on February 28, 1886, the son the late William C. and Anna Vogelding Becker, and resided his entire life in the home of his birth.

He worked on his farm ever since leaving school some 55 years ago and was well known and liked in the community.

Mr. Becker never married and had no brothers. He is survived by three sisters; Miss Mary Becker and Mrs. Rosa Waskom, both of whom lived at the Becker home, and by Mrs. Emma Terry of Fernwood, Mississippi.
