Mrs. Arthur Benton, Brownstown, Expires

Mrs. Arthur Benton, 79, of Brownstown, died Thursday night at a Madison hospital. She had been in failing health for the past six months.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon from the Winklepleck Funeral Home in Brownstown with the Rev. C. W. Taylor, pastor of the Brownstown Methodist Church, and the Rev. George Clayman, pastor of the Brownstown Presbyterian Church, in charge. Burial in Fairview Cemetery, Brownstown.

Friends may call at the Winklepleck Funeral Home at any time.

Mrs. Benton was born in Jackson county on October 14, 1872, the daughter of the late Abel and Rebecca Hamilton McCormick. She was married May 29, 1904, in Seymour, to Arthur Benton, who survives. They resided away from this county for a number of years, returning to Brownstown six years ago after residence in La Romana, Dominican Republic. Since returning to Brownstown, she had renewed many former acquaintanceships and made many new friends who mourn her death. She was a member of the Presbyterian Church.

Besides the husband, she is survived by one daughter, Mrs. H. G. White, of Great Neck, Long Island; three grandsons and two sisters, Miss Berte McCormick, of Brownstown and Mrs. Sadie Jewell, of Alhambra, Calif.
