Mrs. Ford Benton Dies At Muncie

Formerly Lived In Brownstown--
Husband Well Known By Older
Banner Readers.

Mrs. Georgia Benton, formerly of Brownstown, who had been in failing health for some time, passed away at her home in Muncie Sunday evening, death being due to pneumonia.

Services were held at the home in Muncie Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. The remains were brought to Brownstown Tuesday afternoon and taken to the Wallace Funeral Home, where services were conducted this afternoon at 2 o'clock in charge of the Rev. T. J. Hart, pastor of the Methodist church. Burial in Fairview cemetery.

Georgia Swallow, the daughter of George W. and Rachael Swallow, was born at Brownsville, Indiana, July 3, 1859. She was married to Ford L. Benton of Brownstown July 11, 1883, at St. Paul, Minn. They went to housekeeping at Sargent, N. D., where they resided two years and from there moved to Brownstown, moving to Muncie thirty-nine years ago.

During her residence in Brownstown she made many friends, always having a cheery word and a smile for everyone with whom she came in contact.

Besides her husband she leaves one sister, Mrs. Clara Morgan, of Gary, Indiana. Her husband was born in Brownstown where he grew to manhood. He is a son of George V. Benton, deceased, one of the early settlers of Brownstown and one of the most prominent business men in the county in its early history.
