Thomas Scott Blackadder

Nov. 19, 1926-Feb. 16, 1998

Thomas Scott Blackadder, 71, died Monday, Feb. 16, 1998, in Helensburgh, Scotland.

Mr. Blackadder graduated from Falkirk High School and Glasgow University, followed by two years in the Royal Navy as a lieutenant. In 1949 he joined Babcock and Wilcox Ltd., for whom he spent time as an engineer in Sweden, Finland, Japan, Kuwait and New York. He transferred to a subsidiary company, Diamond Power Specialty Ltd., in 1964 and was managing director and chairman of that company until his retirement in 1991.

Born Nov. 19, 1926, in Falkirk, Scotland, he was a son of Thomas and Violet Scott Blackadder. He married Patricia Branaman Blackadder, formerly of Brownstown, and she survives.

Other survivors include a sister, Elizabeth Houston.

The Rev. Fred Booth conducted services Sunday at Clydebank Crematorium. Memorials may be given to Brownstown Presbyterian Church.
